NAMES.

A. ﻉ ﻉ

G. Poooz.

L. Rosa Damascena.

I. Rosa Incarnata.

G. Damascen Rose.

F. Rose Incarnate.

S. Rosa de Alexandria.

D. Damask Roos.

THE DAMASK ROSE.

PLACE.

Tis always planted in Gardens.

DESCRIPTION.

This makes no large Bush. The young Shoots are of a light Leaves; being set full of crooked Spines 1, of a crimson up to the become small, losing their Points, are headed like Pins 2. The Bu inclosed in an Empalement of five long bearded Leaves 3, of a in, on the Top of what becomes the Hipe, and contains in it beard light grey. The Damask is a thin Rose, of a Scent more fragran this Tribe. The Colour is very fine and a little on the purplish greenish The Stamina 5, Apices 6, and Farina 7, are a rich y are serrated, smooth, Veiny, shaded with a Colour between green a ther light nor dark, but of a brownish Hue. 1.2.4.5.6.7. are Parts n one Bristle 8, is a Bud cut open.

VIRTUES.

The Flowers are gently Aperient.

T. Sheldrake delin.